Hello Nancy,

I am sending you the pics. of the enclosed patio my neighbors built.

This whole area, used to be common property for both our units, and it was our front yard, with grass, plants and flowers. They replaced the grass with AstroTurf. Real classy people. They don't even belong here. They belong in a trailer park.

It's bad enough that they covered the front of their home with stones, and it looks like a horrible dungeon...which was done without my permission as well...now I have the wall around it. They just keep bringing our property value down.

They just decided to build this patio one day without my knowledge, and by the time I saw it, it was almost done. So here we are.

Bob told me to check with you, because it might be encroaching on a public easement? I think that's how he put it. I see that there's something in the sidewalk, having to do with the water. I hope this is a violation, and I can get them to do something about it.

I've already filed a lawsuit against my neighbors, not just for this, but for dozens or more other things they've done besides this, where they've taken over and taken away all my rights on my own property.

Unfortunately...I had to hire an attorney, which I can't even afford because I'm on disability, due to all my health problems. That's another reason my neighbors take advantage. They think they can, due to my situation.

So...anything you can do to help me, makes it much easier and helps me to save money in the lawsuit, so it is GREATLY appreciated!
